

outside prison walls would be an obvious notable point, but he believes that it is much deeper than that. Shea believes that he's not been provided an equitable opportunity to live given the information he's briefly discussed in this petition.